AFFIRMATION OF THE WEEK

Don't back down
from your dreams!

JOKE OF THE WEEK

What do you call a deer with no eyes?

No eye-deer!

What do you call a deer with no eyes
and no legs?

Still no eye-deer!

This week is National Story telling week, did you know throughout all of our history and across every culture, people have told each other stories for a variety of reasons – to inspire others, to share important morals and lessons or simply to pass the time. You are the new generation of storyteller...

I'd like you to write your own short story to inspire others, please submit your story entry by Friday 1st February. There will be a prize for the winner and will be judged by Hannah, Deputy Head.

WORD OF THE WEEK

Spanish

El Perro

Definition: Dog

Pronunciation: el peh-ro

Doggy Digest

Name/Nicknames: Theodore/Theo

Likes: Treats, finding sticks, chasing leaves, playing with toys, walks, playing with other dogs, watching out the window on car rides, and eating carrots!

Dislikes: Strawberries (this was discovered by Group 6) and itchy ears!

Favourite snack: All food but he has recently found out he loves apples; keep your apples safe from Theo!

An interesting fact: Theo can do 13 tricks and counting - but only if you give him a treat!

★ WOW WORK! ★

El in Group 6 has written a News Report about the poem Porphyria Lover. She then presented this to her class.

The goal of Sudoku is to fill the cells with numbers from 1 to 9. The numbers are placed in 9 squares, 3x3 each, thus, in each row, in each column and in each small square there are 9 cells. The same digit can be used only once in each separate column, each line and in each small square.
