Monday 25th March 2024

Today marks the day for Holi festival. Holi, or Holli, is a Hindu festival that celebrates the coming of Spring and the end of Winter. It is an ancient festival that was originally celebrated in India.

Commonly, the festival, which lasts two days, is also called 'The Festival of Colour'.

During the celebration, colourful perfumed powders, called gulas, are sprinkled onto everyone participating, with water and then being thrown to help the colours stick to the body.

★ WOW WORK! ★

4 Write an article for a local magazine about a music event.

You should include:

- where the event was held
- how long the event lasted
- what you liked about the event and why
- what you didn't like about the event and why.

Write at least 8 sentences. These must include at least 3 compound sentences that use conjunctions, for example: and, but, also, because.

Use at least 2 paragraphs.

The event was held at the top of a hill but they did tell you it might be hard to get to that point. There will not be free parking it will be £2.00 to enter also we open and 7:00am to 5:00pm.

I like the event it was so exciting and the covered walls and light. Also I love how demonstrate their staff to you. But did not like how long the event was it made me bored. Other things I didn't like was the food and the chairs were so uncomfortable but to sit on.

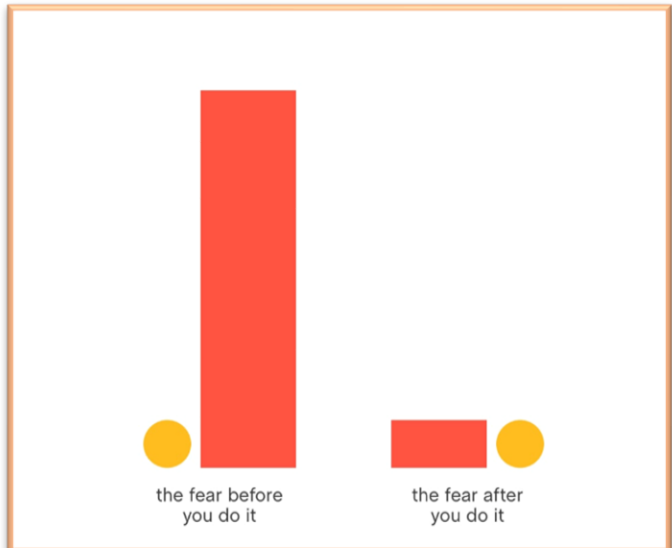

But over all the worst thing I complain about is the toilets it was a pain and the floors leading to the toilets.

Omar's work was nominated for using correct paragraphing and punctuation during an exam question.

Rebecca worked hard on creating her Ancient Greek inspired terracotta tile – using relief and carving techniques.
