Welcome to Cotswold Lodge

We are delighted to officially join our two sites together at Park School and come together as one team—staff and students united. This is a wonderful moment in our school's journey, and we want every single person to feel valued, included, and supported as we take this next step together.

At Park School, kindness sits at the heart of everything we do. Over the coming days and weeks, we encourage everyone to get to know one another, lend a hand, share a smile, and help build a community where every individual feels they truly belong. By learning from each other and supporting one another, we will create a positive and welcoming environment for all.

These are exciting times for Park School. With our sites coming together, we look forward to new opportunities, stronger collaboration, and an even brighter future. Together, we will continue to grow, achieve, and make Park School the best it can be.

Welcome, everyone—let's make this new chapter a great one!
